MATURITY SCHEME EXPOSED LONG AGO

MORE THAN THREE THOUSAND PEOPLE, MOSTLY HAWAIIANS, ROPED IN OVER TWO YEARS AGO AND THE LEGISLATURE WAS TOLD THAT DANGER WAS AHEAD—A POOR SYSTEM OF FINANCING.

“APART FROM THE TECHNICALITIES OF BOOK-KEEPING, I HAVE SOUGHT TO PRESENT TO YOUR COMMITTEE THE FACTS CONNECTED WITH THIS BUSINESS. THE MOST PROMINENT FACT OF ALL IS THAT THE COMPANY IS USING CAPITAL—MONEY SUBSCRIBED BY ITS MEMBERS, IN LIEU OF REVENUE. IN THE ABSENCE OF A PROPER SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTING, IT IS POSSIBLE THAT THE DIRECTORS HAVE NOT REALIZED THIS; BUT IF THE SAME COURSE IS CONTINUED, A DAY OF RECKONING WILL COME.”—Report to the Legislature over two years ago, on the Hawaiian Realty and Maturity Co., by M. W. W. Gilbert.

This afternoon the Attorney General sent for some of the books of the Maturity Company. It is now said that certain people prominent in the community may have to answer some embarrassing questions.

A year ago the Territorial grand jury asked the Territorial Treasurer for a statement of the standing of the company and Expert Book-keeper, C. L. Cutting was put on the books. The report was made in duplicate and neither copy can now be found. The treasury department cannot find its copy of the report and the original given to the grand jury cannot be found.

In the office of the company today there were many questions asked by subscribers, but no satisfaction given. A picture of a man with a gun in a “hold-up” attitude and a framed gilded horse-shoe or mule-shoe looked down upon inquirers while a clerk informed a representative of The Star that he was at work on the books to find out where the company stood.

Holt was in only a few minutes during the day. The clerk admitted that there was not the money to meet lawful demands and that the land held by the company was more or less involved.

The Hawaiian Realty & Maturity Company has a prospectus in circulation in which the following Board of Directors is named:

L. K. KENTWELL, Vice President Pacific Charter Company, of San Francisco; Director New York Loan & Building Association, and General Agent New Hampshire Fire Insurance Co., of Manchester.

COL. JOHN D. HOLT, JR., (late Collector of the Port, Honolulu.) Director Pioneer Loan & Building Association, Honolulu, Managing owner Lovejoy & Company, wholesale merchants, Honolulu.

FRANK ANDRADE, attorney-at-law of the firm of Andrade, Andrews & Peters.
A. L. Ahlo, Edmund Styles, F. J. Campbell (N. Y.), J. A. Somerville (N. Y.).

L. K. Kentwell, the president of the concern, has been in New York for the past several years studying law at the Columbia University, and living in style in Jersey Heights. He is a native of Hawaii of white and Chinese parentage, and apparently has been the brains back of the scheme. His brother, George Kentwell, has been looking after the affairs of the company until a few months ago when he also went to the Coast and John D. Holt, Jr., has been in charge.

The disclosures have caused a good deal of stir in the city, although many persons knew that something was wrong several months ago when they tried to withdraw their money according to the terms of their certificates, and were refused on one pretext or another. Many lawyers in town hold certificates of clients which they have tried to collect and failed.

The Attorney General's department is looking into the matter, with a view of taking some kind of action, and it was stated also that the matter might be brought into the United States

SECRETARY H. P. WOOD.

A special meeting of the Hawaiian Promotion Committee was held yesterday afternoon to formally grant leave of absence to Secretary H. P. Wood, in order that he may leave on the Korea, November 22, for Washington, to represent Honolulu as a special delegate in the Pearl Harbor matter.

The Committee received a letter from Chairman Paxton of the Chamber of Commerce special committee, and granted the request for Wood's services. The request and answer are as follows:

“Honolulu, T. H., Nov. 12, 1907.
“F. L. Waldron, Esq., Chairman, Hawaiian Promotion Committee, City.
“Sir:—The Special Committee from the Chamber of Commerce, appointed for the purpose of considering the question of sending a representative to Washington in re Pearl Harbor, has decided on sending Mr. H. P. Wood, the Secretary of your Committee, provided his services are available. I would therefore respectfully ask that your Committee grant Mr. Wood a leave of absence for a period covering the coming session of Congress or so much thereof as may be necessary in connection with securing an appropriation for the proposed improvements at Pearl Harbor. In making this request I realize the value of Mr. Wood's services to your Committee, but at the same time believe, from all the information we have been able to secure,

BAD GANG MONEY EXPOSED UNTAINTED

POLICE BREAKING UP DESPERATE LOT OF SPANISH CRIMINALS IN HONOLULU.

A gang of Spanish knifers is seeking to terrorize the town, over-awe the police department and do up the United States marines on guard at the Naval station here.

Chief Taylor and his men have disarmed several of them of their guns and knives and landed them in cool cells at the police station where they will be given an opportunity to appreciate American police methods.

“It would appear from the few facts thus far obtainable that the detective department has nipped in the beginning the plans of a desperate band of criminals such as Honolulu has seldom seen. One of these Spaniards, supposed to be the man who sprang from a darkened doorway and stabbed William Stromath a sailor of the U. S. S. Iroquois, the other night, has been stalking about the lanes and winding ways of Iwilei, displaying a revolver and making dire threats against any who sought to interfere with his self-appointed authority, and at the bottom of the whole plot to commit crime, or at the head of the gang, in a strange way, is the ugliest female in the Territory, bar none, who for some mysterious reason, exercises a strange fascination over these Spaniards and others who come within the radius of her reptile-charm.

Board Of Health Will Try Wallach

ANOTHER “EXTREMELY PRIVATE” MEETING, IN PRESIDENT PINKHAM'S ROOMS IN THE YOUNG HOTEL, AND KUHIO LEFT TO TELL LEPEHS TWELVE OF THEM COULD COME HERE TO BE TREATED BY WALLACH.

Wallach is going to have his chance. Twelve Hawaiian lepers from the Settlement are to be given the opportunity of having the great female rock doctor treat them in person without any interference whatever from anybody.

Prince Cupid has doubtless by this time made a solemn promise to this effect to the unfortunates on Molokai. The Board of Health will ratify this promise in a substantial way, probably at its next meeting, by granting the permission which it heretofore has withheld.

All of this and more was arranged and fully understood before Cupid sailed for Kalaupapa last Friday evening. Moreover the Delegate to Congress carried written and signed evidence to back up the statements he was to make, and to prove to his hearers that he, Kalaniana'ole, Prince of the Old Regime, and Delegate from the Territory to Washington, had not forgotten his people, but had spoken the word, and all barriers were as straws.

Most of the details of these plans were thrashed out in the strenuous “exceedingly private” meeting, which wasn't a meeting but only a “business gathering,” held a week ago last Tuesday, and “which didn't result in anything.” Things that took place at that three-hour session are beginning to come to light. President Pinkham was right in insisting that the gathering was not a Board of Health meeting—it was only a political caucus which had for its object the harmonizing of some interests of the Republican party which were in danger of becoming chronically antagonistic. Of course the whole issue was the Wallach matter.

The meeting did not develop complete harmony, and there were some very sore members after it was over, but it did indicate a tacit understanding that Wallach was to be put to the test. It was pointed out that Cupid was the only person with influence sufficient to calm the trouble which had been caused by the refusal of the Board to give Wallach a show, in spite of the promise which the lepers at the Settlement understood that President
